Brother Parsons formally assumed the chair and called the convention, as organized, to order. He delivered the following opening remarks to the convention:

The keynote of this Convention is “Strengthen Psi Upsilon.”

This convention probably starts a long series of Psi Upsilon conventions dedicating the delegates to hard work and to the fulfillment of accomplishment.

We come here with purpose—we shall act with purpose—and we shall leave here with purpose.

I have met with many of the undergraduate members of our fraternity over the last year. I have yet to find one man among them who does not wish to belong to a first line fraternity, carrying on a first-class operation and doing all those things which will continue to make it a leader in the fraternity world.

I am not used to playing on a losing team. I hope you are not so minded that you can stand to see our Psi Upsilon anywhere but at the top. This will take work—this will take determination—this will take money—this will take planning. This program, with your full concurrence, starts today.

I am not here to play. I expect you are not. We are here not only to put together those things which are necessary to put Psi U where it belongs—but also to keep it there.

I call upon all delegates, all chapters of Psi Upsilon, to band together in a common determination to strengthen our organization, to inaugurate those motions and resolutions necessary to bring this about—to return to your chapters prepared to implement actively these resolutions—to cast aside individual chapter inclinations which tend to disunite us and to bring into play a group of sound brotherly procedures which will lay the ground work for success.

If this is not the program you stand for—you have before you the wrong president of the Executive Council. But, on the other hand, if this is what you desire, I will work with you—I will work for you. I know there are many dedicated brothers who will lend us strong hands.
The chairman then appointed the following standing committees:

Page Eleven
RESOLVED: That each chapter, at the end of each term, be required to submit to the Executive Council a report on its program of literary exercises, in keeping with Article IV, Section 2 of the Constitution of Psi Upsilon Fraternity which states:

"Each chapter shall hold not less than three meetings of a literary character during each collegiate term."

and that this report include the nature of such exercises.

On motion duly adopted, the report of the committee was accepted, and the resolution was voted.

George S. Martin, Theta Theta '64, requested and received permission to address the convention. He requested that the following statement be read into the RECORDS, permission for which was granted by unanimous consent:

Many undergraduate and alumni members of Psi Upsilon have become increasingly aware of Psi Upsilon's inability to maintain its position of superiority over all fraternal brotherhoods. From all indications Psi Upsilon today is no longer the number one fraternal brotherhood in the United States and Canada. Our present Executive Council, under the leadership of Brother Parsons, has put needed life into Psi Upsilon. However, many weaknesses still exist and will continue to plague the Fraternity for several years to come. It is now that weaknesses must be found and eliminated.

We have continually neglected many fine universities and colleges throughout the United States and Canada. We now have 29 active chapters located for the most part in the northern mid-west and New England areas. However, these areas no longer have the distinction of being the sole centers of American academic learning. The far-west, southwest and, in fact, the south now have institutions of equal facilities and reputations. Stanford and Occidental in California, Whitman in Washington, Duke in North Carolina, Oregon, Oklahoma and Virginia are all examples of good educational institutions. These schools and many others might very well prove honored places for Psi Upsilon brotherhoods.

Certainly it would be folly to expand without thought, careful study and due consideration. Just as certain, our success as a fraternal brotherhood, our traditions and our very name are all, in part, dependent upon our ability to secure sufficient universal strength. To have too few chapters is as disastrous as to have to many.

Brother Martin then offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That the convention mandate the Executive Council of Psi Upsilon to:

1. Study the feasibility of expansion within the bonds of our great Psi Upsilon traditions and develop basic policy and guidelines for expansion;
2. Contact all chapters and alumni associations of Psi Upsilon, asking specific recommendations and opinions on the feasibility of expansion within their geographic areas;
3. Submit not later than January, 1964, a preliminary report to all chapters and alumni associations on sections 1 and 2 of this resolution;
4. Submit a complete report to all chapters and alumni associations before the 1964 convention on sections 1 and 2 of this resolution.
On motion duly adopted, the resolution was voted.

On motion duly adopted, the convention recessed at 10:50 a.m.

The convention was reconvened at 11:30 a.m.

Brother Frisby, chairman of the Committee on Annual Communications and Unfinished Business, submitted the final report of the committee and offered the following resolutions:

RESOLVED: That the convention authorize the payment of $500 to the Omicron Chapter as a contribution toward the expense of running the convention.

RESOLVED: That the convention go on record as being unalterably opposed to the increasing numbers accorded the status of "Inactive;" that it strongly recommend that each of the chapters refuse election to the status of "Inactive" except under the most compelling and unusual circumstances, when all efforts to maintain the active status have been exhausted; and that it direct each chapter which does elect a member to such a status report the circumstances in full to the Executive Council which shall, in turn, report at each convention the names of all members attaining such status during the fraternity year; and

That this convention likewise record its position as one whereon it does not recognize under any circumstances resignations from Psi Upsilon or any status such as "separatist" and that all chapters cease immediately their recognition of such; and

That this convention further recommend that any member asking to resign or to separate himself from Psi Upsilon be promptly expelled in accordance with Article VI, Sections 7 and 8 of the Constitution and the circumstances of such reported immediately to the Executive Council, which shall, in turn, report all expulsions during the fraternity year to the ensuing convention.

RESOLVED: That the Executive Council be notified by the trustees of each chapter and/or by the active chapter of any change of importance in the condition or operation of the chapter, and that such report be made within two weeks of the occurrence.

RESOLVED: That the allotment of $400 included in the 1963-4 Executive Council Operating Budget be divided among the three far western chapters (Epsilon, Theta Theta and Zeta Zeta), each chapter to receive $133.33. In the event that any chapter eligible for an allotment fails to send a delegate to the convention, its portion of the sum shall revert to the treasury.

On motions duly adopted, the report of the committee was accepted, and the resolutions were voted separately.

Brother Dimella, chairman of the Committee on Credentials, presented the final report of his committee and stated that credentials from 27 chapters had been presented and were in proper order and that the Sigma and Psi Chapters were not represented by delegates. (For list of delegates, see Appendix F, page 51). He proposed the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That the president be instructed to send to the presidents of the alumni body and active chapters of the Sigma and Psi Chapters letters expressing the convention’s regret and appallment at the absence of the delegates from those chapters to the 1963 Convention.

On motions duly adopted, the report of the committee was accepted, and the resolution was unanimously voted.

Brother Frisby requested and received permission to address the convention. He stated that the Zeta Zeta Chapter desired to go on record that it wished to be considered as host chapter for the convention in 1965 to help mark its 30th anniversary as a chapter of Psi Upsilon. He stated that it already was considering charter airplane service to accommodate the delegates from eastern chapters.

Brother Lehner, chairman of the Committee on Academic Standing and Awards, stated that his committee wished the previous report to be a final report. On motion duly adopted, the report of the committee was accepted.

Brother Simmons, chairman of the Committee on New Business, submitted the following resolutions:

RESOLVED: That the convention amend Article XI, Section 2, of the Constitution of Psi Upsilon Fraternity, so that annual membership reports of all chapters shall run from July 1-June 30 each year; and

That the annual membership report forms be sent to the respective chapters as of February 15 of each year, with the completed returns due at the Executive Council office by the following March 15, such reports to include the names of members in active standing at any time during the fraternity year (together with additional data as indicated) and, in addition, the names of all men to be initiated prior to June 30 of our fraternity year and, therefore, subject to fraternity taxes for that year; and

That the Executive Council, following receipt of such annual membership report, issue bills for dues and Diamond life subscriptions promptly to the respective chapters and such bills be payable by April 30.

RESOLVED: That, where the necessary information is available, each chapter notify the Executive Council at the end of each term of the college year of the chapter’s academic standing in regard to:

1. The relation of the chapter’s mean academic standing versus the college all men’s average;

2. The relation of the chapter’s standing in comparison with the other fraternities on the campus, including the all fraternity average.

In case the chapter’s scholastic average is below the all men’s average and/or it ranks below the middle of all fraternities, said chapter shall notify the Executive Council in detail what action the chapter is taking in regard to the standing of the lowest 15% of its membership.

RESOLVED: That each chapter participate in a service project of its own choosing, to be carried out during the college year and reported to the Diamond upon completion of the project.

On motions duly adopted, the resolutions were separately voted, the last by roll call vote: 13 YEAS, 10 NAYS. Brother Simmons stated that his committee would submit a further resolution later in the convention.

On motion duly adopted, the convention recessed at 12:26 p.m., to reconvene at 2:30 p.m.
The convention was called to order by President Parsons at 2:55 p.m. Recorder Brush called the roll of the chapters and reported that 20 chapters were represented by delegates, with the Sigma, Psi, Upsilon, Iota, Phi, Chi, Rho, Epsilon and Epsilon Nu delegates absent, and that a quorum was present.

On motion duly adopted, the reading of the minutes of the preceding session was dispensed with.

Lee M. Mitchell, Xi '65, acting chairman of Rushing Committee B, presented the committee's report which dealt with deferred rushing. The committee warned all chapters in regard to the consequences of illegal rushing under this system. On motion duly adopted, the report of the committee was accepted and ordered placed on file.

Brother Simmons, chairman of the Committee on New Business, submitted the final report of the committee and offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That the Psi Upsilon Fraternity be unalterably opposed to hazing, which is defined as any activity of the fraternity or its individual members which causes or is likely to cause mental or physical danger or harm.

On motions duly adopted, the report of the committee was accepted, and the resolution was voted.

George J. Ker, Jr., Epsilon Omega '64, acting chairman of Rushing Committee A, presented the committee's report and offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That a rushing committee of each Psi Upsilon chapter submit to the Epsilon Omega Chapter a comprehensive report on its rushing procedure, such report to be submitted no later than November 15, 1963, and to include:

1. General rushing procedure in accordance with specified university or college rules and regulations;
2. An enumeration of the problems encountered;
3. All rushing activities which have proved especially successful;
4. New ideas on rushing; and

That this report be edited and published by the Epsilon Omega Chapter prior to January, 1964.

On motions duly adopted, the report of the committee was accepted, and the resolution was voted.

The chairman announced he would afford the convention an opportunity for further business. The following resolutions were offered from the floor:
RESOLVED: That the determination of the location of the Psi Upsilon Convention for 1964 be referred to the Executive Council with power to act.

RESOLVED: That the 1964 Psi Upsilon Convention be extended to three and one-half days, with registration to be held on the morning of the first day.

RESOLVED: That a Workshop program be included in the agenda of the Psi Upsilon Convention for 1964, with the topics for discussion to be selected by the Executive Council.

RESOLVED: That a joint committee consisting of members of the Executive Council and of undergraduates be appointed by the Council to determine the best method to distribute Surveys of the chapters, or portions thereof, to other chapters.

On motions duly adopted, the resolutions were separately voted.

Following a discussion on the possibility of establishing a chapter at Stanford University, the chairman urged any delegates who might be in a position to visit that university to do so and to report back to the Council any possibilities which might exist for a Psi Upsilon Chapter at that university.

The chairman thanked the delegates for their courtesy and interest in the proceedings and requested the delegates to report back to their chapters the proceedings of the convention and to convey the good wishes of the Council to each.

The chairman turned the floor over to Brother Morton who addressed the delegates and solicited their cooperation during the ensuing year, promising, in turn, that the Council's office would endeavor to be of such service as the chapters might require.

The chairman announced that, following the adjournment of the convention the Committee to Foster, Protect and Improve Ritual and Tradition would sponsor a formal meeting ceremony, with Frank C. Urban, Omicron '64, presiding.

There being no further business, a motion to adjourn sine die was duly adopted at 4:41 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

JEROME W. BRUSH, JR., DELTA DELTA '39
Recorder

THE ANNUAL COMMUNICATION OF THE
EXECUTIVE COUNCIL
TO THE
1963 CONVENTION OF PSI UPSILON
HELD UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE
OMICRON CHAPTER
URBANA, ILLINOIS

AUGUST 28, 29, 30, 1963

On behalf of the Executive Council and of the Board of Governors of the Alumni Association may we extend a warm welcome to the delegates and visitors to this 121st Convention of Psi Upsilon being held in our 130th year. We are most grateful to you for your attendance and to the University of Illinois for the graciousness of its reception of us and for the facilities that it has provided for our deliberations. The 130 years of Psi Upsilon's existence, since its founding at Union College on November 24, 1833, parallel much of the history of this country and Canada. Much of that history was written and shaped by brothers in Psi Upsilon—men from all walks of life. From the highest echelon of Federal, State and Local governments, from the law and the Judiciary, the Church, the Arts and Sciences and from all branches of industry Psi U's have helped endow the two countries with the vitality that has brought about their dynamic growth and development. Few organizations of men can look back through such a long unbroken corridor of time and find it illuminated by the brilliant achievements of so many. Never was the need for united strength and sound, vigorous leadership greater than it is today. It must be the strong determination of all Psi U's to see that all of the links in our chain are firm so that we may help resolve the multiple problems of the present and of the future just as we have throughout our distinguished past. Psi U's have never shirked responsibility.

No small part of the vigor and vitality that have made our countries great has sprung from our fine State universities as exemplified by our host chapter today. The Omicron, born May 28, 1910, is into its second half-century of steady growth and accomplishment as the University of Illinois approaches its centennial in 1968. The genesis of the Omicron bears an interesting similarity to that of our Mother chapter, the Theta. Just as seven young students at Union College felt and recognized the need to forge enduring bonds of perpetual friendship and close social communion, so too felt six members of the College of Engineering, class of 1906, at the University of Illinois. This burning desire resulted in the formation of the Aztec Club in February of 1904 by its six original founders Harmon V. Swart, W. K. Henning, George S. Pope, Dwayne G. Young, June R. Freeman and William R. Stanrad. Beginning the academic year of 1904-1905 with nineteen members, the young Aztec Club made its presence immediately felt in the organization life of the university and demonstrated its high order of intelligence by declaring its goal to be chartered by Psi Upsilon or to remain a local society. The next six years marked slow but steady progress towards the achievement of this goal culminating on May 28, 1910, when Brothers Earl D. Babst, Iota-Phi '93, and Herbert L. Bridgman, Gamma '66, formally installed the Omicron and initiated its Charter members. Towers of strength in the growth and development of the Omicron have been Dean Fred Rankin, '87, Professors Frederick Green, '89, Charles M. Moss, Pi '77, and Dr. Augustus F. Nightingale, Xi '66; also Emmett L. Murphy, '07, Franklin T. Kegley, '08, Harmon V. Swart, '06, Roy E. Taylor, '07, R. Bourke Corcoran, Omega '15, and many others. Currently C. Lyman Emrich, Jr., '32, distinguished lawyer and former Rhodes Scholar, is serving as President of the Omicron Alumni Association and making his contribution to the increasing strength of the chapter. Many sons of the Omicron, too numerous to mention, have gone on to distinction in their various fields, scholars, teachers, scientists, jurists, lawyers, bankers and industrialists. They have made major contributions to the growing might of this country.

The university itself, founded in 1868, has been undergoing a vast program of expansion and development until today it has achieved front rank among institutions of higher education. Beginning with primary emphasis on Engineering and Agriculture, the university has expanded into a well-coordinated complex of twenty-one separate colleges and schools providing curricula leading to any one of thirty different degrees. Over one hundred major buildings house its various activities on the 535 acre campus here in Urbana-Champaign. An additional 107 acre campus is being developed at the present time for its Chicago Division which has a current enrollment of 4,500 and where a student body of 20,000 is expected by 1970.

With a total enrollment of nearly 40,000, the faculty has been steadily increased enabling the university to pursue its policy of conducting relatively small classes and thereby providing maximum individual instruction. While its student body comes largely from Illinois it includes those from every other state in the Union, from four U. S. territories and possessions and from eighty foreign countries. Its preeminence in many fields of science has caused its basic research to be well-known and acclaimed throughout the world, and its assistance is constantly sought by both government and industry.

Ritual and Tradition:

Fine traditions and dignified ritual are sources of inspiration and distinction. Their perpetuation provides a bridge from the best of the past to the present and supplies firm footing into the uncertainties of the future. When our seven Founding brothers joined hands and pledged themselves to the highest moral, social and intellectual achievements, they established a cornerstone of Psi U tradition which is imperishable. Its preservation and practice is more important today than ever in our history.

Recognizing the need to foster, protect and preserve our ritual, the delegates to the Convention held at the Mu Chapter in 1951 directed all chapters to file copies of their Rituals with the Council. Also in accordance with a directive of the 1959 Convention held at the Omega Chapter, the Council prepared and had sent to all chapters a handsome pledge manual. It is an important moment when our pledges accept the responsibilities and obligations of prospective Psi U's and the pledge ceremony should accordingly be conducted with full solemnity. It provides the first formal opportunity to impress these young men with what membership in Psi Upsilon can mean and, if conducted properly, will go far towards setting their first steps in the right direction.

The ceremony of initiation should be invested with still greater dignity and distinction, for at this moment the pledges emerge from something amorphous and become integral parts of a fine, strong brotherhood of men. This should be a moment of boundless joy and pride to the new brothers, leaving an indelible and lasting impress upon their minds.

Indications are that a number of our chapters have been slacking off in the purpose and regular practice of our rituals. One of the most practical ways of keeping these matters alive is by the holding of regular meetings and conducting them with the dignity that is called for and which our history merits. Many chapters carry on the tradition of regular weekly meetings, a practice which should be rigidly observed. Others hold special commencement meetings during which certain fine traditions are observed. These include an address from the graduating senior class to the undergraduates they are leaving behind in the house and a responding address from the remaining undergraduates to the outgoing seniors. A chronicler makes an annual report on the accomplishments of the year at the Commencement meeting.

Another practice which aided materially in the preservation of our traditions and ideals, and which was pursued by many of our chapters for many years, involved the preparation of “literary exercises” as called for by the Constitution. Here, by assignment, different brothers were given certain phases of our history to research and to prepare papers. Upon completion, these studies were delivered at chapter meetings, thereby aiding the brothers in developing both the facility of writing and of delivery.

These practices are splendid parts of our overall ritual and tradition, and your Committee to Foster, Protect and Preserve Ritual and Tradition strongly urges each chapter to do everything it can to keep them alive and strong so that our heritage may be continued by each succeeding college generation.

Undergraduate Scholarship:

Every chapter of our fraternity should continually keep in mind that the foremost objective of American colleges and universities is the intellectual development of their students. Every chapter should also remember that fraternities exist only as parts of their respective colleges, that they have no existence outside the college community. As an integral part of the college, a fraternity chapter that lives up to its responsibilities must hew to the same line as the college of which it is a part. Any fraternity that for long fails to do so cannot justify its continuance.

Intellectual excellence among its members is, and has always been, a major objective of our fraternity and is stated to be so in our Constitution. Some of our chapters year after year take their scholastic responsibilities seriously and as a result make a record that is a credit to Psi Upsilon. Too many of our chapters, however, appear to take their academic responsibilities lightly, establishing records that set a black mark against their members, their chapter, and their fraternity. In June of 1962, the last academic year for which we have complete scholastic records, three of our chapters were in last position on their respective campuses, two were next to last, and one was only two positions above the bottom. In short, one-fifth of our chapters had not only unsatisfactory academic records, but positively dismal records. Five other chapters stood but little higher. The Executive Council is deeply disturbed by this showing, and particularly by the records of those chapters that seem to be satisfied to wallow in the academic swamps year after year with no visible improvement.

Today the obtaining of a scholastically satisfactory college education is more fiercely competitive than ever before. Most of the young men now entering college do so with a serious realization that their academic achievements will determine much of their future accomplishments, and some even shun fraternities with poor scholastic rankings. This is attested to by a steady annual improvement in the all men’s averages. Our chapters’ averages should better the all men’s if we are to be on solid footing in our respective colleges and universities. No single achievement could more effectively negate much of the criticism being currently leveled at the so-called fraternity system.

As a means of stressing the fundamental role of scholarship in undergraduate life and stimulating the attainment of creditable chapter academic standings, the Convention of 1949 adopted resolutions providing for the establishment of two chapter scholarship awards to be presented at each convention. These awards are contributed by the Psi Upsilon Alumni Association. One award is made to the chapter having the highest academic standing, the other to the chapter showing the greatest academic improvement over the preceding year.

The Award for Academic Distinction consists of a cup and a permanent plaque. The cup is held by the winning chapter during the ensuing year and becomes the permanent possession of the chapter that succeeds in winning it in three consecutive years. Since it was established in 1949 the Award for Academic Distinction has been won by the following chapters:

1949 Iota 1956 Omega
1950 Rho 1957 Theta Epsilon
1951 Lambda 1958 Theta Epsilon
1952 Iota 1959 Theta Epsilon
1953 Epsilon 1960 Zeta Zeta
1954 Omega and Theta Epsilon 1961 Rho
1955 Upsilon

The Award for Greatest Improvement consists of a permanent plaque.

One of the duties of this convention will be the selection of the winners of these two Awards for the academic year ending in June, 1962.

The Executive Council

The government of this fraternity is vested in the Convention and in the Executive Council. The Convention is in session two or three days annually. For the remainder of the year, the Executive Council is the governing body of the fraternity, acting under the Constitution.

The Executive Council was instituted in 1869. Living Past Presidents of the Council are Life Members, and retired members who have served fifteen years or more may be elected to honorary membership thereon. Living Past Presidents are: Earl D. Babst, Iota-Phi '93; Scott Turner, Phi '02; and Benjamin T. Burton, Chi '21. Honorary Life Members are: Robert K. Northey, Nu '12; R. Bourke Corcoran, Omega '15; and Edward T. Richards, Sigma '27.

All members serve voluntarily. They pay the expenses of their own meetings, their travel expenses in making official chapter visitations and attending conventions. Some members travel from Chicago, Montreal and other distant points to New York to attend council meetings. Eight well-attended meetings have been held during the past year between October, 1962, and August 27, 1963.

The terms of three members of the Executive Council expire with this convention: Jerome W. Brush, Jr., Delta Delta '39; Edward S. Fries, Eta '45; and Lawrence W. Towl, Kappa '24. Brother Fries, Eta '45, was elected to the Council in October, 1962, to serve out the unexpired term of George L. Brain, Iota '20, who resigned.

Of major importance to the Psi Upsilon Fraternity was the Executive Council meeting held in October, 1962, when Brother Benjamin T. Burton, Chi '21, having served the Council as President for the preceding seven years, indicated that he could no longer carry the burdens of the office. As a consequence Brother Robert W. Parsons, Xi '22, was elected to succeed him. Brother Burton’s long service to our fraternity dates actually from his initiation as an undergraduate at Cornell during the college year 1916-1917. An untiring supporter of the Garnet and Gold during his undergraduate days he continued his dedicated service to our fraternity, first, as a member of the Alumni Association Board of Governors, which he led as President from 1934 to 1940, and for the past twenty-eight years as a member of Council, its Vice President and then its President from 1955 to 1962. His continuous efforts to build a stronger Psi Upsilon have endeared him to all of the brothers who have known and worked with him, and his name is etched indelibly on the distinguished list of Psi Upsilon members who have served this fraternity in an outstanding manner since its birth in 1833. In accordance with precedence, Brother Burton was immediately elected a Life Member of the Executive Council where his invaluable counsel will be available to the members for, we hope, many years to come, and on which body he is currently serving the fraternity as Chairman of the Finance Committee.

Last year at the same meeting of the Council it was with great regret that the members accepted the resignation of Brother Edward T. Richards, Sigma '27, as a regular functioning member and as one of the Vice Presidents. Brother Richards found that the increasing pressures of his law practice on the one hand and the growing problems of Psi Upsilon on the other hand made it impossible for him to continue his active participation in the current work of the Executive Council. One finds it impossible to measure the service which Brother Richards has rendered to Psi Upsilon. He served on the Executive Council for twenty-four years, first as Secretary and then as Vice President. He was the mainspring in the formation and organization of The Psi Upsilon Foundation, Inc., and followed this tedious work through to its ultimate successful establishment. It was only fitting that Brother Richards should be the President of the Psi Upsilon Foundation and, as you will note from a more detailed report of the Foundation later in this communication, his resignation from that body and office was a matter of great concern and regret to all of the brothers who have been working with him. We are fortunate, however, in having Brother Richards accept election as an Honorary Life Member of the Executive Council since, in this capacity, his invaluable advice and assistance will continue to be available to us. His devotion to Psi Upsilon has been matched only by his great service to his own chapter—the Sigma.

Under the special section of this communication allocated to the Psi Upsilon Foundation, you will be informed of the fact that Brother R. Bourke Corcoran, Omega '15, succeeded Brother Richards as its President. It is most fitting that Brother Corcoran be elected as its President. His lifelong support of Psi Upsilon and his membership in its various institutions are known from coast to coast. He will lend dignity and able stewardship to our Foundation.

This year, due to the request of the delegates attending last year's convention, our present sessions will last over a span of three days. Because of many requests received from active members in several of our chapters, we have proposed a new program for Psi Upsilon not only to strengthen it in all of its endeavors but also that our chapters may adjust their operations to the great educational changes that are sweeping the country. Also, at the request of many of our undergraduates, the Executive Council has set up a list of "Psi Upsilon Chapter Standards." These two matters will be presented in detail to this convention, and resolutions implementing them will be offered for your approval as strong recommendations from the Executive Council.

We likewise have set up for your approval a Psi Upsilon Workshop Program which should take all day August 29 in order to handle its agenda adequately. The purpose of the Workshop is to take the first step in a complete indoctrination of our delegates in capable chapter management which will tend to eradicate the wide variety of performance on the part of our twenty-nine chapters. This idea was generated by the request of our active brothers. There will be five panels—one each on: scholarship; finances; chapter management; rushing; and The Diamond. It is our hope that you will enter into this program wholeheartedly and give it your very best cooperation. We ask you to take notes as the proceedings advance so that you may carry back to your active chapter membership the valuable knowledge to be gained therefrom.

It is the opinion of the Attorney for the Executive Council that our Constitution, in its present form, needs revising to bring it up to date and to modernize it to meet the demands of Psi U today. A resolution will be offered during the convention for the appointment of a committee to study our Constitution and the needs of the fraternity in connection with it and to report its findings and recommendations to the 1964 Convention for action.

It is evident, too, as you will ascertain when the fraternity’s new program is read to you, that Psi Upsilon needs to expand The Diamond so that it can carry a greater message to our membership and as a consequence lead to better support from all of our brothers, particularly our alumni, as it takes its increasingly important place in the communications of the fraternity in the promotion of the Psi Upsilon program.

In late years the work of running the Psi Upsilon Fraternity has grown rapidly. The problems of our chapters have increased steadily since World War II, and the Executive Council has finally been forced to the conclusion that there is no alternative to the able management of this wonderful institution other than to engage the services of a full time executive officer. Wisely our Constitution provides for this since our founding. We should pay adequate compensation to such a Psi U and reimburse him for the expenses he incurs in carrying out his various missions. This will enable us to render more aid to our chapters and assist many of them in their competitive problems. A resolution will be offered asking your approval of this decision.

At its June meeting the Executive Council considered it unwise to delay longer the employment of such a full time executive officer because of the preparation of the new program for Psi Upsilon, the set of Standards for Psi Upsilon Chapters, and the program for the convention itself. It was also necessary to set up meetings with several of our chapter organizations to be held early in the Fall. Plans of the Council for the Workshop session at the convention required a great deal of planning and preparation to enable it to do the type of job deemed necessary.

As a consequence of this and other considerations, Brother Alfred H. Morton, Omicron ’19, was elected to fill this particular position and since July 1st has been working vigorously on the preparation of these various matters which the Council feels will demonstrate by its results the advantages to be gained. Brother Morton has served Psi Upsilon in numerous capacities for many years. First as a member of the Executive Council, then as an original member of the Board of Governors of the Alumni Association, which he also served as President, and as President of the N. Y. Metropolitan Association of Psi Upsilon. Council feels fortunate in enlisting his services, since his knowledge of Psi Upsilon and its various activities place him in the fortunate position of being able to move in rapidly upon the various problems involved. We will ask you during this convention to approve this action by an appropriate resolution.

Inasmuch as our annual budgets heretofore have produced deficits, and inasmuch as these new resolutions of the Executive Council will increase our expenditures, it will therefore be necessary to find new sources of income, other than from our undergraduates. A resolution will be offered for your approval asking your support of the Executive Council’s request to be authorized to inaugurate a new system of collecting annual voluntary dues from our alumni. It is the hope that sufficient funds will be forthcoming from this source to balance our operating budget, including the newly suggested expenditures, combining those formerly collected by our alumni association into one sizeable amount through alumni giving.

Our splendid chapter at Williams College, the noble and fine Delta Delta, has put up a tremendous opposition to the college planned program there for fraternities. Psi Upsilon is indeed indebted to Brother Jerome W. Brush, Jr., ’39, and his fellow Chapter Directors for their outstanding, intelligent and inspiring leadership in this most trying period and which is overwhelmingly supported by the Delta Delta alumni. It is regrettable that some few old fraternities have or will become inactive at Williams—Psi Upsilon will continue, as before, in its normal way and will rush this year. We will occupy our beautiful house and grounds. Some other societies will do likewise.

During the year it was our unhappy obligation to report to you the conditions still existing in our former chapter—Theta Epsilon. The developments finally led to the reluctant acknowledgment by the Executive Council that this chapter no longer existed. It then became the duty of the Council, acting for the fraternity, to take possession of the assets of that former chapter until the Convention could take the necessary steps. We notified the educational authorities concerned to this effect, wrote out a complete report which was mailed to each chapter and its alumni organization officers and certain members of Psi Upsilon in the Los Angeles area. A resolution will be offered to you later in the convention carrying with it the recommendation of the Executive Council as to what action seems appropriate.

We are pleased to report to you that in answer to many requests from our undergraduates for more action on the part of our fraternity organization as a whole, your Board of Trustees of the Psi Upsilon Foundation, members of the Alumni Association Board of Governors, and the members of the Executive Council, along with representatives from The Diamond, met in a joint meeting on May 15, 1963, to hear reports on the general conditions of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity as a whole, as well as the situations that exist at various of our chapters. These reports were in some detail and indicated to the many brothers present that a program of action should be set up and put into effect as promptly as possible after the convention, always, of course, believing that the program will be approved by this Convention. This meeting was one of the most meaningful in the history of Psi U. It clearly indicated the undivided cooperation of these three great arms of our fraternity, and it was notable that their findings for the recommendations were unanimous. We believe that a meeting of this general tenor should be held each year and that the results will accelerate the forward progress of Psi U. As a consequence of this meeting and the recommendations emanating therefrom, a program was formulated which as previously indicated will be offered for your approval and instructions in the form of a resolution.

At last, the format and setup of "Chapter Surveys" have been completed by Brother John F. Bush, Jr., Upsilon '22, who labored long and exceedingly well in this regard. It took an infinite amount of time and thought to put these valuable packets together. As we carry out our chapter surveys and realize the great value they will be to us, the work of Brother Bush will become more and more appreciated. These chapter surveys will fit strategically into the work of "The Psi U Program.” It remains to be determined how these surveys should be publicized. Suggestions in regard to this thought will certainly be in order.

During the year we requested the Presidents of our various Chapter Alumni Organizations to attend at least one Executive Council meeting during the year, believing that the exchange of information would be of infinite help to all concerned. Some ten Presidents did attend at least one meeting of the Executive Council, and the results were so important that this practice will be continued. It has been further suggested that the Presidents of the Active Chapters likewise be invited to attend. We will be pleased to receive your suggestions in this connection.

Following the instructions of the 1962 Convention, the Executive Council filed the necessary application to join the National Interfraternity Conference. Our application was favorably acted upon at a meeting of the Conference held at the end of November, 1962. It would appear from the material we have received to date from the Conference and from the help which we have received in connection with some of our problems from its executive secretary, that this membership will be a profitable one for Psi Upsilon. We intend to use a great deal of the data supplied by the Conference in our work with our own chapters.

Chapter Visits:

During the past year ten of our chapters received official visits from members of the Executive Council. A number of others were visited informally. Being fully aware of the importance of chapter visits, the Council has given a great deal of time and study to ways of making these visits more valuable and meaningful. This has resulted in the preparation of a most comprehensive and detailed set of data to be prepared shortly before and during each chapter visit. This information will then be assembled into a full report with copies going to the chapter president and the president of the chapter alumni association.

The Survey consists of five main elements:

1. Material to be obtained in advance of the visit from the active chapter.
2. Material to be obtained in advance from the president of the chapter alumni association.
3. Material to be obtained at the time of the visit.
4. A set of suggestions to the member of council making the visit.
5. A model format for the councillor’s report.

Mutually satisfactory times will be established for the visit, with the advance forms being sent to the presidents of the active chapter and of the alumni association a month in advance of the scheduled visit. Reminder letters will be sent to the same two individuals one week prior to the proposed visit. These procedures should result in a most valuable stocktaking: valuable to all concerned—the chapter, its alumni group, and to the Council. It should provide a current inventory of each chapter’s situation which will enable all of us accurately to appraise the situation and to diagnose what steps need to be taken to correct any weaknesses which may be disclosed.

This plan contemplates a two-day chapter visit in each instance to be made by either two members of Council or a member of Council accompanied by another appropriate and interested brother. To date, visits utilizing the surveys have been made by two members of Council to the Psi and the Beta Beta chapters with most satisfactory results. Four other Survey visits have been made to the Zeta, Xi, Pi, and Delta Delta chapters by one member of Council with assistance on the spot from members of the local alumni group. The Lambda, Phi, Nu and Epsilon Nu chapters were visited prior to the inauguration of the new survey procedures. The tempo of these visits will be stepped up with the resumption of the new academic year and it is hoped that by the end of 1964 complete surveys will have been made of most of the other chapters. They will analyze every phase of chapter operations and are designed solely for the purpose of strengthening Psi Upsilon, the cornerstone of the Program which will be presented to the convention very shortly.

As the strength of any chapter derives in large measure from an active, interested chapter alumni organization, the chapter alumni group forms an integral and important part of each chapter visit. This is indicated by the important role assigned the chapter alumni group in the chapter surveys.

As over one thousand of the best young men in the country are now in active chapters of Psi Upsilon, the Executive Council desires most earnestly to assist in every way possible in assuring strong, vigorous and healthy chapters of our fraternity wherever they may be.

1964 Convention:

It is incumbent upon the 1963 Convention to decide which chapter shall have the honor of acting as host to the 1964 Convention. Next in order, following the usual order of rotation, are the Theta, Beta Beta, Nu, Iota and Kappa. The newer chapters which have not yet been host to a convention are the Zeta Zeta, founded in 1935; the Epsilon Nu, founded in 1943; and the Epsilon Omega, founded in 1949. If no invitations are received at the Convention, it is necessary to refer this matter to the Executive Council with power to act.
The Psi Upsilon Foundation, Inc.:

The President of the Foundation will address the convention briefly on Friday more in detail on the scope, development and progress of this important facet within the Psi Upsilon world.

During the past college year, gifts and bequests considerably exceeded previous years receipts and most important the net income available for awards was more than double the amount available the previous year.

Last Spring of 1963 nine awards were made for a total of $1600.00. These went to undergraduates at the Theta, Lambda, Kappa, Xi, Phi, Mu, Epsilon, Delta Delta and Zeta Zeta chapters. In the Spring of 1964 it is expected we shall have at least $3500.00 for this purpose based on present income estimates. Eventually we hope to be able to make awards totaling from $30,000 to $50,000.

We wish to obtain greater interest in the purpose and meaning of these awards, by our chapters, and a new outline on applications to achieve this will be detailed by the Foundation President.

Applications for awards this year were stimulating and, even more, proved their need, as was foreseen by the Founders of the Foundation.

All income from the Foundation is used for scholarship aid at present, but in later years we hope to expand our program.

We are pleased to report we already know of bequests planned by nine alumni from modest sums up to $25,000. Furthermore, ten alumni have indicated they will send in gifts this year in substantial amounts. The last issue of The Diamond was a special appeal for such gifts—all of which are legal deductions from gross income within the limitations of the Internal Revenue Act.

The letters received with donations to date from alumni, whether with small or substantial donations, evidence high approval and interest in this worthwhile program.

Scholarly achievement should be the earnest desire of each of our brothers and an important goal of each chapter to justify its continuance in developing brothers with self discipline, high ambitions and to assure their future success.

In Closing:

Despite the adverse publicity concerning fraternities appearing in certain publications, the actual facts completely refute these mostly unfounded claims and indicate a healthy and vigorous growth of the fraternity system all across the country. Total fraternity membership and the number of fraternity chapters operating on campuses in all parts of the United States and Canada are increasing to a remarkable degree. Never have so many educational institutions in the United States and Canada opened their doors and welcomed fraternity activity. One reason for this attitude is found in certain government statistics which show that fraternity men have more persistence in graduating than non-fraternity men—a condition pleasing to college administrations.

Psi Upsilon remains undaunted. We believe strongly in the importance of the fraternity system as a vital adjunct of a college education. The evidence is irrefutable and we intend to see that our house is strong and in good order that we may continue to supply our share of the leaders of the future as we have throughout our glorious past.

"Until the sands of life are run
We'll sing to thee Psi Upsilon."

Yours in the bonds,

The Committee of the Executive Council of Psi Upsilon on the Annual Communication to the 1963 Convention

PSI UPSILON FRATERNITY PROGRAM FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE

BACKGROUND:

Down through the history of mankind, there have arisen times when the individual, institution, society, state or nation has found it compatible with sound practice to submit to self-examination so that they might take stock of themselves by a study of their historical past to see (1) from whence they have come and how, (2) where they now are and the general conditions surrounding their present existence, and (3) to determine where in the future they seem to be headed. All of this is in order to assess as correctly as seems possible whether their present circumstances and the course they seem dedicated to follow is “on stream” in relation to their desires, their hopes, their aspirations and in accordance with the expectations of their constituents.

The world of education is passing through a period of rapid and great change as we all know. These changes bring with them alterations (1) in current thinking contrasted with the past, (2) in the college climate and living conditions as we have known them, and (3) in approaches to the formulation of habits that will enable the student to obtain the most from his educational experience and to thereby equip himself to meet the world challenge of tomorrow. All sections of the educational world have been affected—secondary schools, colleges and universities, as well as graduate schools. It is not peculiar, therefore, that fraternity life has been and is affected by these influences. It likewise follows that the fraternities, therefore, should adjust themselves to the current patterns of the world as it is today and to examine their part in this complex, in order to be sure that they are in step with the times; also to assist, as well as take the lead, in any moves to lend strong aid to the student in his desire and need to meet the challenge of today.

Thus the time and conditions are such that our beloved Psi Upsilon Fraternity should adopt similar sound operating methods and proceed to a thorough self-examination in order to ascertain its present situation. This should be implemented by designing and putting into effect a program that will assure our leadership in the world in which we exist.

THE PRESENT CONDITION:

In assessing ourselves we find that today Psi U is at a crossroads of its history. This is primarily due to the fact that our procedures and overall modus operandi are outmoded. We have been carrying on in a space age with antique tools. While the fraternity world has been growing and modernizing its methods, and the educational world has not only been growing but changing in direction, intensity, and demands, our fraternity has not been increasing our undergraduate membership. As others have, we have retained out-dated methods of operation, and have struggled along as best we could unaided by modern techniques, and unaided by the constant able vigilance necessary to meet the intense rivalry and competition of our competitors. Modern methods of operation are imperative if we are to regain our former position of eminence and to enhance it.

This situation has gradually developed since the end of World War II when many of our chapters renewed operations, lacking in the proper carry-over from pre-war days of our traditions and our strengths. This situation called for close supervision from our Chapter Alumni Organizations, from our Executive Council, and from the Alumni Association Board of Governors, in order to bridge successfully the gap of the war years.

Pressures, times and events, however, did not produce this necessary close supervision, and as a result several of our chapters have drifted into a condition where their future continuance is in jeopardy.

One or more of these chapters not only do not carry out many of the regular traditional procedures but have made no effort to ascertain just what those procedures are or what they could mean to the members. One or more chapters are failing to keep in step with the college programs and the administration policies on their campuses and these chapters have suffered loss of prestige in the first place, and in the second place have failed to offer full, significant fraternity benefits to their members.

One or more of our chapters have declined in number of members to the point where their continuance as an effective body is in doubt. Scholarship, the very basis for sound management, in one or more of our chapters is so inadequate that college administrations are pressing us for effective programs having promise of strong improvement. Finances in some of our chapters are in an unsatisfactory condition and in need of new methods that will gradually correct these imbalances and obtain the desired results.

It will take great effort and careful planning to bring each back to its former enviable position of leadership.

Despite publicity to the contrary, the fraternity world has been growing stronger and larger in numbers, the fraternity chapter rolls have increased by some 1,500,000 since 1957 and a strong well run fraternity system is in great demand by colleges and universities all across the country. Against this trend, Psi Upsilon's active rolls have not increased in number and this we cannot accept as the record of one of the finest and oldest of all existing fraternities in the collegiate roll.

This situation is primarily due to the general setup of Psi Upsilon and its methods of operation. In the highly competitive world today, it is unfair and impracticable to expect volunteer aids to compete successfully with polished, smooth-running, well-financed systems, which are partly professional in character and which practice an ever-vigilant continuing business approach. Such methods characterize the operations of many of our rivals. The odds are heavily against the volunteer method of operation. Many of our competitors are substantially ahead of us in the different facets of fraternity management—rushing, finance, alumni relations, scholarship, college relations, programs, house control and administration, etc. By comparison our measures are quite passe and this soon becomes obvious to—(1) our own members, (2) our rivals and (3) our prospective members. This imposes serious impediments to your budgeting efforts, and rushing.

We took in a new chapter in 1952 at the University of Southern California. Although it seemed to have been started in an auspicious manner, it gradually died on the vine. The reasons for this loss stemmed partly from the fact that there is some doubt whether we ever belonged on that particular campus. More probably it was due to the fact that we did not have the proper organized business-like approach to cope with the problems of a new chapter. We did not have the proper equipment to render the assistance to that chapter which was required. We have, and have had, capable men who know the answers but who did not have the requisite time to give to the problem. A fraternity today must have capable manpower available at the time it is needed and in the place it is needed. This is too much to ask of volunteers—no matter how dedicated—and expect them to compete adequately with professionals who move in on such a problem like seven-year locusts. The answer is obvious; it has been obvious and it is becoming even more obvious.

Without in any way minimizing the gravity of certain of our situations, we are happy to be able to report that the foregoing critical self analysis fortunately applies to only a few of our chapters and these are undoubtedly aware of their particular weaknesses. Most of our chapters are in fine strong condition with the possible exception that some are suffering in the important matter of scholarship. Many are taking firm and specific steps to correct this latter condition. Surely none of us wishes or intends to permit our strong 130 year old bonds to be endangered by any weak links.
We are also happy to be able to report that our quarterly publication The Diamond is not only self sustaining but plans for its expansion are under way which will make it an even more useful disseminator of news. You will hear more about these plans later in the convention.

THE REMEDY:

In order to cope successfully with the problems of some of our chapters as they are today, it is necessary that we adopt procedures needed to gain the full cooperation of the undergraduates involved in the first place and the college administrations in the second place. We must then proceed with a program to be carried out by men well-versed in the techniques required, and with adequate time to maneuver.

This requires skills which are acquired only by long study of the practices used so well throughout the fraternity world. Volunteers cannot be expected to have the continued time available to become adept in this field and they certainly are no match for the deftness of the artful full-time operator.

Also required is a constant flow of communications between the central body of the fraternity and the active chapters on the one hand and to the various alumni units on the other hand. This system of disseminating news, policies and plans on a basis consistent with dignity, interest and expectations, calls for a carefully planned operation that has spelled great success for those fraternities which have practiced such skills. The interest of the outside world in our fraternity depends to a large extent on the interest of our own members. No better system has been devised to get the interest of fraternity members in their own organization than by able and constant flow of communications. By building such interest in Psi Upsilon we increase the desire of able young men to join our brotherhood.

We have had a marvelous number of men for years heading up and carrying on our fraternity communications and doing so for only the love of Psi Upsilon. To them, including above all those who are doing this great job today, we owe a debt of gratitude we cannot repay. They have stood fast through the years when they knew if they only had more time to spend and a larger budget with which to work, they could have carried on their particular operation on a broader basis and with more effective results for Psi Upsilon. Their restrictions have been a great source of unhappiness to them but throughout they have longed for the day when they might use all of their talents for our fraternity.

Until our fraternity is organized with an adequate skilled staff supplying the businesslike methods of all of our competitors in the fields of chapter management and personnel on the one hand and in the area of fraternity communications on the other hand, we cannot hope to regain our position and hold it.

THE QUESTION:

Thus Psi Upsilon is at the crossroads. Are we to continue to drift downward in the climate of the fraternity world or have we the inherent fiber of our progenitors, resolute and knowledgeable, to recognize our strengths and our weaknesses and with measured thinking decide now that we will steer the course of our ship of state like an able seaman—avoid the rocks, alert our men to the needs of the hour and proceed with all hands entering into the movement to bring our ship of the line into battle well equipped with a program that spells success?

This is the question that faced your Executive Council during the last few months and as a consequence it has been the problem which it has studied with the aid of the members of the Alumni Association Board of Governors and the Trustees of the Psi Upsilon Foundation.

THE ANSWER:

As a consequence, and with unanimity, every one of the members of these three Psi U boards voted to go on the attack. They requested the formulation of a program that would entail the establishment of a full-time staff to operate the business of this fraternity under the guidance of the Executive Council and its officers and to broaden the field of the fraternity’s communication effort so that it tied into a concerted effort not only to strengthen Psi Upsilon but to maintain it in a position of leadership in the fraternity world consonant with its traditions. They requested an estimate of the cost of such a program and asked for proposed measures to place the whole operations on a sound financial basis over a period of time.

Following these requests, the officers of the Executive Council formulated the following program which was approved by the Executive Council at its June meeting and the officers were directed to submit this program to the Convention to be held in August for its approval and instructions, with the strong recommendation that it be enacted into being, with the Executive Council empowered to carry it out.

THE RECOMMENDED PROGRAM

Staff:

To install immediately a full-time paid executive to manage the business of this fraternity under the supervision of the Executive Council and its officers. The title and salary of such executive to be fixed by the Convention in accordance with our Constitution.

Chapter Size:

To place a minimum size of forty-five active members for each of our chapters with a preferable minimum of fifty. All chapters smaller than this number immediately to take steps to increase their size accordingly or secure an exception from the Executive Council which shall report all exceptions and reasons therefore to the Convention each year.

Scholarship:

Institute an operation which will not only produce and foster a high level of scholarship but also will consistently make scholarship attainment highly respected and admired. An academic program should be inaugurated and executed which will include sound scholarship standing as one of the requirements for election to membership and a special procedure carried out to supervise carefully the academic attainment of those members whose rankings place them among the lowest 15% in their chapters. We must prove that fraternity affiliation will enhance the academic standing of our members.

Traditions:

Produce a program of education for our active members covering all phases of our traditions including initiations, regular meetings, special meetings, singing, and knowledge of our Constitution. Eliminate any tendency toward “inactives,” “separationists,” etc.

Finances—Chapter:

Proceed to place each chapter on a sound financial operating basis. Cooperate with college administrations to effectuate an audit and collection system eliminating delinquent accounts. Monthly condition reports should become a regular procedure.

College Programs and Participation:

Produce a situation where every member of our chapters are participating actively in their college programs. Pursue a policy of having each chapter represented in every phase of college activities. Strongly support administration programs and exact chapter reports covering their activities in this regard. Indicate pressure where a chapter is not satisfactorily carrying out this policy.

Chapter Surveys:

Carry out the work of the chapter surveys and make full reports to the whole fraternity on each survey result.

FINANCE—EXECUTIVE COUNCIL:

Carry out an annual program where the Executive Council assumes all responsibility for the collection on a fraternity-wide basis of voluntary dues from the alumni of the fraternity. These dues to be collected for the budget of the Executive Council. Such dues collections to be timed not to interfere with chapter alumni dues procedures.

REGULAR MEETINGS WITH COLLEGE OFFICIALS:

Promote quarterly meetings between our chapter undergraduate and graduate officers on the one hand and college deans, presidents, etc., on the other hand for the purposes of maintaining close liaison work for the benefit of our chapters.

THE DIAMOND:

Enlarge the size of The Diamond and make it a more effective voice of the fraternity with the basic philosophy of maintaining knowledge of and pride in Psi Upsilon and its accomplishments—a broader communications medium.

CHAPTER ALUMNI GROUPS:

Make effective efforts to strengthen chapter alumni groups and aid in their programs, and encourage further build-up of geographic alumni organizations.

RUSHING:

Effectuate an enlightened and modern technique in our rushing programs which shall be based on pledging men who will help each chapter carry out the Fraternity Program and conform to the Psi Upsilon Chapter Standards.

FINANCIAL SOLUTION:

The above is a complete story of the new program for the immediate future of Psi Upsilon. The natural questions which arise at this point are—What is the cost of this program, particularly in the first year; what may be the present financial condition of the Executive Council, and just what will the total figures indicate for the fraternity as a consequence of current estimates?

In answer to such questions, it would appear that the additional cost of the program to the Executive Council would approximate $23,000 for the first year. This covers the salary of the full time Executive Officer and his traveling expenses, an increase in the office staff, and an enlarged Diamond. Unfortunately, the Executive Council’s budget has been run on a deficit basis for the last two years. For the year ending April 30, 1962, the operating budget deficit amounted to $14,000 and for the year ending April 30, 1963, it was $17,000.

Adding the increased expense of the program to the deficit for the year ending April 30, 1963, we find that some $40,000 will be needed in order to balance the budget for the current year. The Council has already taken the position that it is unsound for the fraternity to operate at any deficit, and, therefore, it has decided to recommend to the Convention that inasmuch as it feels it should not increase the tax to its undergraduate members, the only remaining source of income will be a system of annual voluntary dues from all the alumni of the entire fraternity. Although no definite amounts have been mentioned as the proper level of the dues, the Executive Council believes that it should be left to its discretion to work out various levels based on the number of years a member has been out of college and institute a system perhaps of special fees for what might be termed “life memberships,” “Founders memberships,” “Sustaining memberships,” etc.

Our total alumni body is 17,559 living members. At an average per annum dues of $15.00, we need to secure payments from at least 2,700 alumni in order to bring in the required funds. This is only 15%—that should be exceeded easily.

We believe that if the entire membership of our fraternity is alerted to the needs in such a way as to gain full support, we will succeed. This estimate was made not only on the basis of what other fraternities have been able to do in this regard but particularly because of the fact that we have as loyal a group of brothers in Psi Upsilon as can be found in the fraternity world today.
Attached is the financial report for the year ended April 30, 1963, which has been prepared in the same form as the reports of the past few years. This convention will be asked to change the fiscal year for the Fraternity from May 1 to April 30 to a new fiscal year to begin July 1, 1963. In anticipation of favorable action with respect to the change in the fiscal year, the Financial Committee of the Executive Council has also favored a change in the make-up of the statements. Accordingly there are also attached statements in a revised form for the two months of May and June 1963. In the future, the financial reports will be basically along the lines of these two months statements, unless a better form may be developed in subsequent years.

The securities in the investment portfolio at April 30, 1963 represented investments at cost of $81,188.23 which had a market value at that date of $109,156.30. In addition there was $49,137.84 in a savings account with the Irving Trust Co. earning interest at the rate of 3 1/2% per annum. The Financial Committee initiated this policy of maintaining a large part of the investment account in liquid funds last year because of the uncertainty of the security market in order to protect the funds of the Fraternity. This committee is carefully and cautiously returning some of these funds to selected securities, which in its opinion are sound investments for these trust funds.

Total income for the year amounted to $31,874.54 as compared with $29,124.05 for the previous year or an increase of $2,750.49.
Total expenses for the year amounted to $48,893.09 as compared with $43,124.26 for the preceding year, the details of which are shown on the Statement of Income and Expense for the year.

The deficit for the year therefore amounts to $17,018.55 as compared with $14,530.21 for the prior year.

Because of the accounting changes as reflected in the statements for the two months period, it is unnecessary to authorize the transfer of funds from the Diamond Life Subscription Fund to the Diamond Current Fund as had been the practice in prior years.

The Finance Committee proposes to prepare a working budget for the guidance of the Vice President of the Fraternity and to have such a budget approved by the Executive Council as well as any proposed deviations from such an approved budget.

I wish to record here my great appreciation to a friend, who, though not a brother in Psi Upsilon, is a trusted associate of mine and is most helpful to me and the Finance Committee, Mr. George Spieler.

I am most grateful to the Chapter Treasurers in cooperating with us in having the Chapter payments received as early as possible in advance of the convention so that there is no delay in the seating of the Chapter delegates.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANKLIN F. BRUDER, Theta '25
Treasurer

PSI UPSILON CHAPTER STANDARDS

The educational world is passing through a period of readjustment requiring changes not only in the preparation of the student and his curriculum but also in his overall academic standing and living conditions. Since historically Psi Upsilon has been of incalculable value to undergraduates in gaining maximum benefit from their educational experience, and wishing to maintain its traditional position of leadership, the 1963 Convention of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity believes it timely—because of the wide variation of performance among its chapters—to issue a set of standards as guide lines of operation for those chapters which seek to strengthen the position they occupy on their respective campuses, indicating therein a level of performance expected of them in order to qualify as an outstanding unit in our great fraternity. Many of our chapters are practicing such standards at the present time and they represent the strongest links in our chain.

Scholarship and Academic Standing:

In order that a chapter of Psi Upsilon may assume its proper role, it is necessary that the academic standing of the chapter be above the college all men’s average and that it rank academically not below the mean in the standing of all fraternities located on its campus. Our chapters should take whatever steps are necessary to increase the academic standing of those of their members whose averages are among the lowest 15% of its membership. Its rushing activities should be guided in large part by the scholarship standing of its rush list. A committee composed of both alumni and undergraduates to supervise the academic climate of a chapter is recommended. As the attainment of high scholarship standing is now highly respected and admired, it is our intention to make Psi Upsilon a leader in this phase of college life.

Rushing:

Rushing is our sales campaign. Like any successful sales effort it requires careful planning and well organized preparation. It calls for the united effort of the entire house acting under the leadership of the rushing chairman and his committee and with the active cooperation of the chapter alumni organization. Those chapters located in metropolitan areas have real need of intensive rushing support by their alumni from outside the city, to get members who will live in the house.

In addition to the entire chapter, the rushing chairman and his committee should be particularly well prepared in matters of Psi U. history, tradition, and distinguished membership. They should be aided by well conceived and executed printed material which present the strongest possible case for Psi Upsilon. Competition is intense and can only be met by superior effort and material.

To achieve proper and unanimous election of each prospective rushee our traditional “black ball” system should be used to have a delegation completely and enthusiastically acceptable. We elect members only by unanimous vote. This is the only method to assure harmony and unison.

Rushing plans should use as guide lines the principles set forth in “The Psi Upsilon Chapter Standards” and should contribute in every way possible to the firm establishment of the standards in our chapter life. It is obvious that rushing effort should focus only on those men who indicate a definite desire for fraternity membership and who give ample evidence of their intention and ability to stay with their college education until graduation.

Our rushing results should be in line with the chapter’s obligations to the policies of its college, to its own chapter membership and to the fraternity as a whole.
We reserve the right to self-determination in our selection of our membership. It is implicit in Psi Upsilon, and such is acceptable to all institutions where we have chapters.

Pledge Class:

Psi Upsilon stands for the complete education of the pledges on the standards and ideals of Psi Upsilon, its traditions, its history, its songs, and its membership rolls. It believes that pledges should be thoroughly indoctrinated in the meaning of Psi Upsilon life, as outlined in our formal pledge ceremony including the life-long tenure of its membership, the obligations of its members, and what is expected of them as members. They should be inspired to understand that they will get from Psi Upsilon in direct proportion to what they put into it.

Chapter Size:

For a member of Psi Upsilon to achieve the maximum benefits from his four-year college career, it is essential that he be intimately associated with a group of brothers sufficiently large to represent a wide variety of activities, accomplishments and points of view. This is of incalculable value in developing a well-rounded man.

The number should be large enough to permit participation by the chapter in all activities of the college or university and to provide a sound economic base for the operation of the chapter, without subjecting it to undue financial strain.

Experience indicates and it is our considered opinion that these conditions can best be met with a chapter roll of not less than forty-five and preferably fifty or more. Psi Upsilon is unalterably opposed to small chapters which make impossible the fulfillment of its obligations to its members, its college and to the fraternity as a whole.

Finances:

Sound finances are necessary for the successful operation of any fraternity and are the outward manifestation of able management.

The chapter officers, working in concert with the chapter alumni officers, should prepare and the chapter should operate under a well constructed and realistic budget which should be in good health at the end of each academic year. This is only good business and with freedom from economic concern the chapter can devote more of its energy to other constructive pursuits. Close and continuous scrutiny of chapter finances should be carried on by chapter and alumni officers and is an absolute necessity; a number of colleges and universities cooperate in this regard. Good habits of regulating finances, formed at this time, will stand the brothers in good stead in the years ahead.

In the case of a number of our chapters the rent and board payable by our actives is collected by the college fiscal offices and certain bills paid by that same office. Regular monthly audits are made by the college authorities. This procedure has worked well and it is recommended that it be adopted wherever practicable. It provides an essential check on delinquent accounts, which should not be tolerated under any circumstances. They impose a grossly unfair burden upon the brothers who are current with their obligations. Delinquent accounts should be assessed severe penalties and continued delinquency dealt with drastically according to the merits of each individual case.

Conduct:

Psi Upsilon believes that the practice of impeccable behavior and deportment is incumbent upon its members. Our chapters must accept the responsibility for the conduct of their members as an obligation assumed by any association of men.

Psi Upsilon is committed to the training of its members in the arts and practices of living together culturally and socially in harmony, and in the assumption of as much responsibility as can be carried with dignity and success. This training supplies a supplement to the scholastic objectives and curricular aims of their colleges, and supplies the experience from which the leaders of the future emerge.

It is needless to say that all of our members should abide by the requirements of social conduct established by their colleges and universities. As fraternities must create for themselves a favorable image in the minds of the public, the college administrations, alumni, parents of students and to the student body generally, it follows that too much care cannot be taken in the practice of excellent behavior patterns at all times.

Initiation:

Psi Upsilon believes that each of its pledges deserves an unforgettable initiation into our fraternity. This requires a solemn, spiritual, dignified ceremony, conducted in a confident and able manner—well rehearsed—in line with the finest traditions of Psi Upsilon initiations. Unusual care and preparation should be taken by the chapter to see that the whole initiation program is most impressive to the neophyte from the first part of the ceremonies to the concluding banquet speakers. The initiates should take part in the program and state their reasons for joining Psi Upsilon, what they hope to get out of it, and what they expect to put into it. They should be given to understand that they have undertaken a life obligation from which there is no turning back and that this association offers them inspirational environment, and life-long fine friendships.

Inactives:

This fraternity is seriously opposed to its members becoming “inactive” while undergraduates. It believes such status should be reserved only for dire emergencies and then only by application to the chapter membership according to the Constitution, followed by a full vote of the chapter after serious consideration of the reasons given. A member who goes “inactive” during his undergraduate career gives evidence that a mistake was made in pledging him. (One chapter requires expulsion for wilful inactives.)

“Resignations” and “Separations”

Every chapter of Psi Upsilon owns its own house, or is located in comparable dormitory section, and operates it for the use of its members. We expect all Upper Classmen of our chapters to occupy these facilities, and to the extent otherwise available, the sophomores to fill the remaining vacancies. We know of no better means for the full utilization and enjoyment of Psi Upsilon fraternity life to be exercised by our members than by the close unity made possible by living together. The Psi Upsilon Fraternity is unalterably opposed to our Upper Classmen living elsewhere except in their own homes. If such a condition of residence is necessary such upper classmen will be expected to participate actively in all fraternity matters thus giving to those following them the benefit of their more mature Psi U experience. In other words we expect all upper classmen to fulfill their obligations to the younger men in Psi Upsilon by indicating through their leadership the merits and valuable attributes of living together in the chapter houses. We cannot condone actions to the contrary. Where college rules are to the contrary, this standard provision would not be appropriate.

No member of Psi Upsilon can resign from his fraternity or “separate” himself from it. A brother joins Psi Upsilon not just for his undergraduate years but for his lifetime, and he is expected to fulfill his obligations of brotherhood for all of his life. The only exceptions are members who are expelled by constitutional means after presentation of charges. “Resignations” are unconstitutional. Chapters are instructed to adhere strictly to these standards.

Meetings:

It is recommended that regular weekly meetings of the chapter be held, with full attendance required. Literary meetings should be held at least three times a term. Articles for literary meetings may be secured from the Executive Council offices. Meetings should be conducted with full rituals and in accordance with the best of our traditions.

Special programs should be planned for initiation and commencement meetings.

Physical Condition of the House:

Our houses should be kept in orderly condition at all times. If present methods do not produce this result, we advocate an agreement with the college authorities to have them take over supervision of house help with frequent inspections to bring this condition into being and to maintain it. A clean and orderly house reflects good management, sound thinking, and good health. It establishes a tone for the chapter. A full size chapter provides funds for ample, efficient porter services. Some few of our chapter houses are maintained as well as a first class gentlemen's club. Anything less cannot be tolerated.

College Administration and Faculty Relations:

It is essential that close liaison should be established between our undergraduate and alumni officers and the proper college authorities. A procedure of regular monthly meetings will help to create a climate of mutual respect and assistance. Such a plan of activity will enable the chapter and its alumni to keep abreast of and in step with the plans, desires and policies of the college administration.

It is obvious that such a demonstration of positive interest by the chapter will go far towards cementing this vital relationship with the college authorities and further enhance our image as a strong adjunct of college affairs.

Dignified social contact with a few faculty members is also highly desirable. For instance, having one or two faculty members to our chapter houses for dinner at least every thirty days is a highly worthwhile project. Where feasible, even a faculty tea for faculty members and their wives is worth considering.

Participation in College Activities:

College officials expect and urge all students to participate in the extra curricular activities of the campus. As a matter of fact, they look with a jaundiced eye upon those who do not take part.

It should be a firm policy of each chapter to have its members take a leading part in as many different fields as possible. Individually each member of the chapter has certain special talents which indicate where his efforts should be directed. With this important aspect of college life in mind, special aptitudes should be considered in weighing pledge prospects.

Chapter Advisors:

It is recommended that there be two advisors for each chapter—one from the faculty, available for frequent consultation and constant chapter house visits, and one from the alumni for advice and assistance.

Aims and Goals of Chapter Members:

Our chapters are primarily in the business of "growing people" and should provide the environment necessary for healthy growth. Their climate should be such that each member is assisted in maturing into a finished product. This cannot be accomplished without practicing the full and best meaning of brotherhood. It is not sufficient simply to profess it.

A well organized chapter is a pleasant and satisfying place to live. It is the incubator of close and enduring friendships for college days and later life. It can supply the support and encouragement needed by every man. It can be of immeasurable assistance to each brother in the fulfillment of his life's goals and ambitions.

We believe wholeheartedly in responsible citizenship and campus leadership.
