The Annual Communication of the Executive Council was read by Benjamin T. Burton, Chi '21, Vice-President of the Executive Council.

On motion, duly adopted, this Communication was accepted and referred to the Committee on Annual Communications.

A. Northey Jones, Beta Beta '17, Treasurer of the Executive Council, read the annual Treasurer's Report, copies of which were passed to the delegates.

On motion, duly adopted, the Treasurer's Report was accepted with a vote of appreciation to the Treasurer, and referred to the Committee on Annual Communications.

The President then called for oral reports from the Chapters, which were rendered as follows:

Theta—The College intends to see that each fraternity receives sufficient income to survive the war emergency including taking care of interest on indebtedness. The Theta is receiving favorable treatment. The house, which is designed to accommodate 27, will be occupied by 80 men from the Navy unit and payment will be on a per man basis. There will be 75 civilian freshmen, and the Chapter will probably continue to pledge and initiate.

Delta—Only two undergraduates remain in the Chapter. While no contract has as yet been signed, the University has orally agreed to pay a rental for the chapter house which will carry taxes and $300 for depreciation. The University will also make minor repairs and return the house in a good state of repair. Furthermore, rooms in the house will continue available for any Psi U undergraduates remaining at the University. The lease will run for six months following the end of the war. Valuable furniture has been moved and the University will maintain a proctor at the house. A number of alumni have become active members. There will be an entering class of 500. Pledging and initiation will continue.

Sigma—Only two civilian undergraduates remain in the Chapter. The Chapter will, therefore, cease operations, as the University requires a fraternity to have ten active members before permitting it to function.

The University has offered to rent all fraternity houses, even though some may not be needed, and the Sigma is the only one which has not yet accepted. In each case the rental will cover taxes, insurance and mortgage interest, if any. The Sigma has no mortgage and the University in its case offers only taxes and insurance. The Chapter has tried to improve this offer without success and may have to accept it. No desirable lease to any other lessee appears feasible.

One undesirable feature of the University's offer is that the University insists on the right to use all of the Chapter's furniture, with the exception of several articles, anywhere that it desires. The Sigma could carry taxes and insurance (over $1,000 per year) for four or five years from present cash reserves.

On motion, duly adopted, the Convention adjourned until 2:00 P.M. Saturday, June 19, 1943.

MINUTES OF THE AFTERNOON SESSION
SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1943
WESTCHESTER COUNTRY CLUB
RYE, NEW YORK

The Convention was called to order by President Turner at 2:45 P.M.

On motion, duly adopted, the reading of the minutes of the morning session was dispensed with.

Oral reports from the Chapters were then rendered as follows:

ZETA—At the end of the last semester the Chapter had sixteen undergraduate members. When college reopens on July 1, 1943, only four civilian undergraduate members will remain. The house will be closed and fraternity activities will cease. The janitor will act as caretaker.

There are no college or interfraternity rules against initiating new members. The 2,400 Navy students at the College, however, only take a four months' course, and further initiations seem impractical.

The bank holding the mortgage on the chapter house has deferred interest until after the war, at which time a refunding operation is contemplated. Little difficulty is anticipated in maintaining payment of taxes, insurance and the janitor's salary.

An Alumni Council of four local alumni have assumed responsibility for running the financial affairs of the house.

The College apparently will not rent any fraternity houses unless need for their actual use should arise. If any houses are rented probably all will be.

GAMMA—The Chapter has ceased active operations. All fraternity houses are being administered by Campus Business Management and house janitors have been placed on the college payroll. Through Campus Business Management the revenues of all houses are pooled and apportioned pro rata.
according to local overhead. The objective is to enable all houses to survive the war period.

It is expected that the Gamma's house will be leased by the College and that it will house 16 freshmen during the summer. The Gamma, however, has no financial worries. The undergraduates have not yet decided whether pledging and initiations shall continue during the war.

Lambda—All undergraduates have entered the armed services. The Chapter's quarters have been taken over by the University and its overhead has ceased. Its furniture is in possession of alumni.

Further rushing would present a problem as service men assigned to Columbia are mainly upper-classmen. It is hoped that arrangements can be made for alumni to become active, however, so that any available and desirable new men may be initiated.

Kappa—During the last college year the Kappa had 73 members. Fifty-four have entered service; three will return to college; and the remaining members are unaccounted for. There is no prohibition against pledging new men, and resident alumni will become active.

The College is to take over the house. It will guarantee payment of all running expenses and will return the house after the war in a good state of repair. The Kappa's centennial will be celebrated by an informal gathering in Portland on July 26, 1943.

Psi—Only one undergraduate remains in the Chapter. Through agreement revenues of all fraternity houses will be pooled for the duration and pro rated according to total overhead. The Psi, with an annual overhead of $2,200, will receive a large share. Its present cash reserve is only $3,500, however, so that a long war will mean going into debt and rebuilding membership following the war is apt to be slow.

It is expected that the Psi house will be used for students during the coming summer session.

Theta Theta—Only six undergraduates remain on campus and they are all members of the reserve and subject to call. The Seattle alumni will become active members, and if desirable new men are available the Chapter will pledge and initiate.

On April 1, 1943, the Chapter rented its house to the Army, which pays $20 per man per month for each of the 53 occupants. This means $1,060 per month out of which the Chapter pays for light, heat and similar overhead. The Chapter has no indebtedness and the best articles of furniture have been stored. The alumni organization has rented quarters in a hotel for Psi U gatherings.

Xi—Only two civilian undergraduates remain on campus. In addition six or seven members will be in the Wesleyan Navy V-12 unit. Possible new pledges will be considered carefully.

Page Eight
The Chapter has no mortgage debt and cash reserves total from $17,000 to $18,000. Annual overhead totals $2,500 and Xi alumni expect to raise a special fund to care for this.

There is no immediate prospect of renting the Chapter house. The College has made no move to aid fraternities as a group. It is renting four or five houses on which it holds mortgages for use by civilian undergraduates.

Upsilon—Only two undergraduates remain. There are 800 men in the Navy and Marine Corps units at Rochester, and the Upsilon's house will be rented for use in the service program. No agreement has as yet been signed. Some furniture has been stored. The fraternities have agreed that there will be no rushing for several months.

Iota—The Iota has no financial problems. It had 23 undergraduates last February. There will be eight this summer and probably none in the fall. This will leave in Gambier to look after the interests of the Iota one member of the faculty.

The Iota does not have a Chapter house. The furniture in the Lodge room and dormitory has been leased except the parlor furniture which has been moved to the Lodge. The Lodge is to be closed. The Alumni Association is to waive charges on the Lodge.

Phi—Only two civilian undergraduates remain on the campus. In addition, five or six members are in the Navy V-12 unit. Resident alumni will become active. A meeting place is to be provided in Ann Arbor. Rushing efforts will continue.

The Army is to use a number of fraternity houses and the University is renting others, including the Phi house, for use by civilian students. The Phi has signed a lease with the University under which it will receive $10 per man per month for normal occupancy. The University is free to lodge in the house as many men as it desires. On this basis financial problems will be solved. The Army still desires the Phi house, however, and negotiations may have to start all over again.

All valuable documents have been moved and the lodge room is being bricked in.

Omega—There are seventeen undergraduates now, but there will probably be only three next fall. The house has been rented to non-student civilians. The mortgage was recently paid off and the Chicago alumni will care for the financial problems.

Pi—There are from fifteen to twenty members in the engineering or medical schools. Pledging and initiating will continue.

The Pi house is being used as an Army guard house, but no lease has as yet been signed with the University. The University offers $300 per month, but the Pi is supposed to remain responsible for taxes, insurance and debt service. The Pi objects to being paid the same amount as fraternities having smaller houses and is trying to improve the rental terms.

A group of the alumni are ready to become active members if necessary.

Chi—There remain on campus five civilian undergraduates and five members in uniform. The chapter house will be occupied by Navy students July 1, 1943. There are no financial difficulties. The Chapter has voted to suspend pledging and initiating for the duration of the war.

Eta—The Chapter ended the last semester with twenty active members, but only two are to return next semester.

Its financial arrangements are detailed in the March, 1943, issue of The Diamond. No written agreement has as yet been signed, but under an oral agreement the University is paying 4% on the appraised value of the land, plus 50 cents per cubic foot for the house. This doubles the previous income. The furniture is to be moved from the house. Alumni have become active, and now serve as officers of the Chapter.

Beta Beta—A Navy unit commences operations at the College on July 1, 1943. There will also be a large civilian freshman class. Four undergraduates are left in the Chapter. Alumni have become active members and the Chapter plans to pledge and initiate new members. There is no mortgage on the Chapter house.

Tau—In January the Chapter had 65 active members. By May there were but 25 and only several are to return in July.

Twelve Philadelphia alumni have become active members.

The Army has rented 22 fraternity houses at 4% of appraisal value.

The University is using seven other houses for civilian students. The Tau house is one of these. No rent is paid as the University owns the house, but all overhead is cared for.

The most valuable furniture has been stored and other furniture is rented at 8% of appraised value.

The cash position of the Tau is good.

Rho—Navy units are in training at the University, twelve fraternity houses, including the Rho's, are being used in the program, but no written agreement has as yet been signed. Six alumni have become active members.

Omicron—At the commencement of the college year the Chapter had a large membership, but there now remain only six. Finances are in good shape with interest and amortization payment current. Many men from the Army are being trained at Illinois University. The Omicron is negotiating, so far without success, for the rental of its house directly to the Army. If no contract with the Army is obtained, the Chapter will try to rent rooms to eligible men in special courses.
3. Resolved: That the Convention hereby approves and endorses the recommendation of the Executive Council that alumni become active members of Chapters during the war emergency.

Upon motion duly passed this report was accepted and each of the foregoing resolutions adopted.

THE ANNUAL COMMUNICATION OF THE
EXECUTIVE COUNCIL
TO THE
1943 CONVENTION OF PSI UPSILON
HELD UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE
EXECUTIVE COUNCIL
Rye, New York
June 19, 1943

The Executive Council cordially welcomes, and extends warm fraternal greetings to, those delegates of our twenty-eight Chapters who have come to this Convention, held in the 110th year of our Fraternity.

It is a matter of gratification to the Council that, at this point in history, when our nation is in its second year of war, the loyalty and interest of active and graduate members alike makes it possible for us to hold a Convention, and to have it attended by as representative a group as we see here today.

In 1934, it was found necessary to hold the Convention in New York under the auspices of the Executive Council. The next earliest case of the kind, was in 1918; we have to look back to 1858 for the next instance. No Convention was held in 1917, which was the first and only break in the continuity since 1841, although a quorum does not seem to have been present in the Civil War year of 1862.

Chapter Visits:

Difficulties of travel, multiplied many times by the war, have made it impossible for the Executive Council to maintain its usual schedule of Chapter visits. Nevertheless, the following five visits were made since our last Convention: To the Delta, Stephen G. Kent; the Tau, LeRoy J. Weed; the Epsilon, Alfred H. Morton; the Nu, R. K. Northey; the Epsilon Phi, H. P. Douglas.

The Condition of the Fraternity:

Despite war conditions, our Chapters maintained a remarkable degree of vitality during the past year. The record as of March 1st, 1943, shows a total of 911 active members during the year, an increase of 61 over 1942 and again of 16 over the more normal 1941 figure. Those graduating from college numbered 227, an increase of 33 over the figure of the preceding year. The number of those leaving college, without graduating, rose from 271 last year, to 423, and, of these, 340, or more than 82%, entered the Armed Forces.

With the ending of the college year, the possibility of maintaining even a semblance of normal fraternity life disappeared for most of our Chapters. As the figures quoted above show, our active membership has, almost unanimously, gone to war. Chapter houses cannot be maintained with only a handful of resident members. Fortunately, in some cases they are needed by the colleges to house Army or Navy student-officers during training periods. Several of our Chapters have vacated their houses, in order that they may be so used. Others are closed, and being maintained in a standby condition; still others are carrying on with small numbers of residents.

E ale Efforts of the Executive Council to Assist Our Chapters:

Eighteen months ago, the Executive Council discussed the inevitable approach of difficult conditions. The President wrote all Chapters and Alumni Associations in December 1942, and, as a result, many informative questionnaires were returned. In January, he asked for and received authority from Council to appoint a joint Council-Governors Committee on War Problems, which has endeavored to advise and assist the Chapters in their efforts to cope with the difficulties brought about by the war.

The Executive Council, and its committee, urged upon the Chapters the plan of interesting selected alumni to become active members for the duration, thus assuring the continuance of the Chapters for the period of the war, and providing the machinery for prompt re-establishment of undergraduate membership after hostilities cease.

Reference to Council’s annual communication during each of the last three years will show that, with increasing force and volume, it sounded warnings as to difficulties that lay ahead, for the student, the alumnus, the chapter, and the Fraternity. We exhorted you to prepare; to put each Chapter’s affairs in order; to make ready for what was coming. We urged undergraduates to restrict, harden, and discipline themselves so as to be ready for war. How well these admonitions were heeded, remains yet to be demonstrated. Those undergraduates, groups, and chapters, which made ready, will survive and continue strong; those who ignored the predictions may find themselves in serious difficulties.

Matters of Interest to All Fraternity Men:

Our youths of college age are being called to the colors, and the 17-year-old boys may be next. They cannot help being puzzled and confused if they read a recent (the middle of April) report of the House Military Affairs Committee, which showed that of the 2,370,166 Federal employees in the horribly-swollen bureaucracy clustered about Washington, 840,578 are men of draft age (enough for 56 army divisions). There they sit undrafted. The middle of this month, a Senate Committee reported that the number of civilians employed in the Federal establishments was 3,008,519; at the close of the last war, the Federal civilian employees only numbered 917,000. Here are enough for 71 divisions, the use of which might relieve the pressure from the lads of high-school age. Our young people must wonder why this man-power pool is untapped, while they are inducted into service long before maturity. However, they must learn to bow to the decision of the majority, and discipline themselves to accept the situation as philosophically as possible.

Both fraternity and colleges are affected by financial conditions in the country. The outlook is not bright. Standards have changed. The maximum annual expenditure by our Federal Government from 1922 to 1931 inclusive was $3,871,000,000. The greatest yearly expenditure relating to World War I was 18,500,000,000, in 1919. Since 1934, annual Federal spending rose first to $8 billion, and was $12.7 billion in 1941, $32.4 billion in 1942; the budget-estimate is $80.4 billion in 1943, and $104.1 billion in 1944. So we are off to a fast start, with the sky the limit. Whence will come the money for the support of those educational institutions not backed by the taxing power, when the usual individual contributors are financially liquidated? The fate of the institution of the college fraternity is bound up with that of the educational institution which it serves. Both are in for some rough going, but, in some manner not yet apparent, we must see to it that both survive the ordeal.

The Nation itself seems to be continuing on its way to financial chaos; the policies of our government seem more alarming than ever. The cost of the war is superimposed on the old purposely wasteful and extravagant use of taxpayers' money, and, through deliberate planning, since 1934, wages and costs have been so inflated that every unit of war material produced here probably means the expenditure of three times what the same unit would cost in any other country.

Periodic statements by high government officials refer boastfully to the fact that expenditures are increasing. Progress is reported in terms of billions spent or obligated. One time-period, or one Bureau, is better than another, because more billions have been spent in it or by it. Seldom are the reports couched in terms of accomplishment.

Our young members should not be misled by statements that our budgeted expenditures will exceed those of all our allies and enemies combined. For instance, it is reported that in 1943 the United States will spend $80.4 billion, while the United Kingdom will spend $18 billion, Germany $32 billion, and Japan $5 billion. In 1944, it is stated that while we are spending $104 billion, the United Kingdom will spend 18, Germany 32, and Japan 5 billion dollars for a total of 55 billion against our cost of 104 billion. Our younger members should try to see things in their proper proportions, and in order to do so, they must not fall into the error of believing that this means the United States will produce more supplies and munitions than our allies and enemies combined, or that the United States will maintain larger armies and navies than all these other nations put together. Far from it! These figures merely mean that, through extraordinarily high wages, overtime, and government muddling, we are paying more for less than anyone else. Undoubtedly it was planned that way—but how about its economic effect on the future of our Nation, our institutions, and even on our individual status? We would feel remiss in our duty if we did not call these facts to the attention of our younger members, on whom we shall have to rely eventually to straighten out this tangle, and to carry on the ideals and traditions of Psi Upsilon.

Epsilon Nu Chapter:

Evidence of vigor in our ten-years-more-than Centenarian Fraternity is found in the fact that, in the course of the past year, we acquired a new Chapter-member. In accordance with the action of the 1942 Convention, the petition of the Hesperian Society at Michigan State College of Agriculture and Applied Science was referred by the Executive Council to the Chapters. Blank ballots were sent to the Chapters on September 30, 1942; on March 18, 1943, the last Chapter-vote was received; all were favorable. The new Chapter was installed, as the Epsilon Nu, on April 17, 1943, when thirty-seven members were initiated into Psi Upsilon, twenty-two from the undergraduate Society and fifteen from among its alumni. All four of the officers of the Executive Council attended the ceremonies, and many Chapters were represented.

The speed with which our youngest Chapter obtained its charter established a new record in Psi Upsilon, where petitioners have been known to wait nearly twenty years before obtaining the object of their desire.

The Executive Council takes pleasure in extending a special welcome to the delegates of this newest-born of our ancient Fraternity, it hopes that the infant Chapter's fortunate advent may be followed by an equally happy and prosperous career in Psi Upsilon.

Roll of Honor:

Since the Convention last assembled, our records show that eighteen names have been added to Psi Upsilon's Roll of Honor in this war. They are: Randall B. Anderson, Omega '43; Lt. John K. Austin, Omicron '43; Flying Officer Leys M. Beaumont, Zeta Zeta '41; Lt. William H. Davis, Kappa '39; Lt. George F. Duncan, D.S.C., Epsilon Phi '38; Randolph Clay Eaton, Kappa '45; Ensign William R. Evans, III, Xi '40; Lt. George M. Footh, Mu '38; Pilot Officer John A. Foster, Zeta Zeta '34; John D.
Greathouse, Jr., Mu '37; Ensign William Connor Laird, Omega '36; Pilot Officer E. S. Parsons, Kappa '28; Lt. John E. Petach, Jr., Delta '39; Pilot Officer Carson C. Proby, Zeta Zeta '37; Struan T. L. Robertson, Zeta Zeta '39; Joseph L. Rohr, Pi '32; Lt. Walter S. Rutherford, Jr., Pi '37; Pilot Officer Peter J. Savage, Epsilon Phi '42; Lt. Comdr. Albert P. Taliaferro, Jr., Chi '22.

There is also a roll of those missing, in the service of their country, to whom we accord no less honor; cherish the hope that they may once more take their places among us. These are: Major William Denton Bloodgood, II, Kappa '42 (North African campaign); Wells Gardener Hodgson, Mu '41 (Corregidor); Wallace Thaxter Jones, Jr., Zeta '41; Lt. Julius A. Raven, D.F.C., A.M., Delta '39; Francis Albert Rocque, Kappa '40.

Both of these lists, compiled from information now available, are necessarily incomplete; we shall, from time to time, record other names, as other reports reach us.

THE ARCHIVES:

The Archives, are in better shape than ever before. We urge all Alumni, when in the Metropolitan area, to pay an occasional visit to our headquarters at 420 Lexington Avenue, where they may sign the guestbook and inspect the memorabilia at leisure. Brother Richard M. Ross, Lambda '20 (President of the Lambda Alumni Association), has during this last year accepted appointment as Archivist.

THE DIAMOND:

War shortages of paper and labor, as well as the necessity for economy, made it desirable to reduce the size of the Diamond. At the same time, with the partial object of using a minimum of space to the greatest possible advantage, and with the help of expert typographical advice, a modern format has been adopted. Under Brother Jerome W. Brush's editorship, this change has been made so judiciously that many complimentary letters regarding recent issues have been received from subscribers. All members of the Executive Council agree that the continuity of this publication must be preserved, since now, more than ever, it serves as an invaluable means of contact with scattered undergraduates and mobilized Alumni.

SCHOLARSHIP:

A report submitted to the Executive Council by its Scholarship Committee showed that, out of twenty-two of our Chapters for which figures were available, seven might be rated as excellent in scholarship, two as good, three as fair, five as poor, and five as bad. Figures show a low area. The Executive Council further suggested to each Chapter that it give authority to Council to name alumni-delegates to represent it at each future Convention, in the event that those appointed by the Chapters should be unable to attend, this authority to be revocable by the Chapter. Thus Council undertakes to sponsor annual Conventions during the war; probably they will be held each year in June, within the Metropolitan area. Naturally, this plan is contingent on the pleasure of the Government, and will be changed if it is found to conflict with the National interest.

General:

Through the actions described above, the Executive Council hopes that the continuity of the Convention, which is the governing body of the Fraternity, may be preserved through the war period, and that a nucleus of alumni-actives for each Chapter may guard its entity and enable it without delay to resume its active life as soon as conditions permit. Many of our loyal alumni have shown, and are showing their readiness to guard the sacred life-flame of Psi Upsilon, while their younger brothers answer our country’s call to duty. Your Council proposes to assist all Chapters in carrying on activities in a limited way. We suggest no surrender at any place along the line, but recognize that adaptations and concessions may be desirable and necessary to meet changing conditions and situations. Now is the time for our alumni to take over and maintain our Chapters. Full responsibility now rests entirely with each Chapter-Alumni group. We call on all our alumni to come forward and do their share in this emergency.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OF PSI UPSILON FRATERNITY

REPORT OF THE TREASURER

There is presented herewith a statement of the net worth of the various funds of the Fraternity held by the Executive Council as of April 30, 1943, a summary of income and expenses of the various funds for the year ended April 30, 1943, and certain comparative figures for the year ended April 30, 1942. A list of investments held in the General Fund, the Bridgman Fund and the Diamond Life Subscription Fund, showing the cost and market value, is also presented.

The cash position of the Fraternity has been improved since April 30th by the collection of $627 of chapter taxes, $3,445 for Diamond life subscriptions, and $50 of miscellaneous accounts which were then unpaid. Accounts receivable as of June 18, 1943 therefore amounted to $1,078 due from ten chapters. This is the worst position at convention time for the past ten years as to payment of chapter taxes and Diamond life subscriptions, and is probably due chiefly to wartime conditions and the changing personnel of undergraduate treasurers. Usually all chapter taxes and Diamond life subscriptions are paid before the Convention.

The situation with respect to our investments is the best it has been in the past ten years. The securities which we had on April 30, 1943 cost us $44,712.77 and had a market value of $43,661.25, an unrealized loss of $1,051.52. Since that date there have been further increases in security prices. Part of the reason for the improvement in position in the past year is that we sold our Baltimore & Ohio and New York Central bonds and our U. S. Electric Light & Power Trust Certificates, all of which had been purchased in the 1920s, at a loss which exceeded the profit on the sale of 100 shares of Great Northern Railway stock and 50 shares of American Viscose stock by $5,610.80 but served to put us in a relatively sound investment position.

It is to be noted that the cost of printing the Diamond in the past year was $1,860.56 compared with $2,806.76 last year, this decrease in cost being due to the smaller edition of the Diamond this year. The loss from the publication of the Diamond this year therefore was reduced to $1,682.57 from $2,743.59 last year and was covered by a transfer of $1,700 from the Bridgman Fund.

Included among our liabilities is a reserve of $23,540.08 for Diamond life subscriptions. This reserve has been accumulated in the past four years. The policy of setting up Diamond life subscription moneys in a reserve rather than of spending such subscription moneys to meet the current running expenses of the Diamond is a vast improvement over the preceding practice when no such reserves were set up. It is expected that the Diamond Life Subscription Fund will be gradually built up by dues of $15 for life subscriptions so that the publication costs of the Diamond can eventually be met in a businesslike manner from annuity payments from the Fund. The 4% annuity payment from the Fund in this past year amounted to $641.60.

The Secretary and Treasurer of the Fraternity are trustees of a fund known as the Willard Fiske Fund, the assets of which are not shown in the attached statement. This fund was started by a gift of $50 made in 1881 by Willard Fiske who stipulated that the money be kept intact until the fund reached $1,000, when the income thereon becomes available for the general purposes of the Fraternity. The fund now amounts to approximately $681, consisting of United States Government Series F Bonds due November 1954 costing $666, and $15 in a savings bank account.

Again the Treasurer wishes to reiterate that every effort is being made to keep expenses, and consequently chapter taxes, at a minimum. Taxes of $4 per man per year are low in comparison with taxes of other fraternities.

The Treasurer takes this opportunity to thank the undergraduate Treasurers of the Chapters for their cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,

ALLEN NORTHEY JONES,

Treasurer.
